

MARIA-CRISTINA
FANTINI
BIO TEACHING

Maria-Cristina Fantini, M.Mus.
Teacher Bio

Maria-Cristina began teaching private singing lessons in 1998 and has instructed at various music studios in Toronto and Vancouver. An affiliate of the R.C.M., she continues to prepare students for exams, competitions, and recitals. She enjoys teaching in a variety of styles including pop, rock, musical theatre, and classical.

Maria-Cristina works with her students on increasing range, refining tone, and acquiring vocal flexibility. She has helped many singers overcome vocal tension and other voice problems.

In addition to her private teaching, Maria-Cristina is excited about her upcoming children's music program that will be offered in Vancouver and New Westminster at various community centers. Maria-Cristina has taught private singing lessons to students of all ages and levels throughout her career and is always eager to help others on their musical journey.
